

Claim Story: Stomach Pain

A 49 year-old member was en route to South Carolina. She developed nausea and abdominal pain shortly after crossing the border into the United States.

Diagnosis: Pancreatitis
Hospitalization: $ 64,000.00 USD
Air Ambulance: $ 9,800.00 USD
Premium paid: $ 66.30 CAD

Allianz Global Assistance coverage provided for this sudden and unforeseen medical event and enabled the member to return to her home province.

Claim Story: Slip & Fall

A 65 year-old member was travelling by motor-home through Arizona. He slipped in the bathroom and was taken by ambulance to the nearest hospital.

Diagnosis: Fractured Femur
3 day admission: $ 33,676.00 USD
Premium paid: $ 117.00 CAD

Allianz Global Assistance enabled the member to receive the necessary emergency care.

Claim Story: Paddle board Fall

A 35 year-old member and her husband were paddle boarding together in Florida when they both fell off and the member was hit in the face with a paddle board.

Diagnosis: 7 stitches to cut above eye, tetanus shot
3 day admission: $ 5,700.00 USD
Premium paid: $ 89.00 CAD

Allianz Global Assistance helped prevent out-of-pocket expenses for the member.

