

CUMIS Travel Insurance Program

Top 10 reasons for your members to buy travel insurance

1. They're taking a leisure or business trip outside of their province/territory of residence
2. They want to be protected in the event of sudden and unforeseen emergency health and medical situations
3. They need to guard against financial losses and the costs of healthcare outside their province/territory of residence
4. To have a family member brought to their bedside if they fall ill and are hospitalized outside of their province/territory of residence
5. To access emergency dental treatment when outside of their province/territory of residence
6. Because their credit card may not have all the benefits and coverage they need
7. Because their company's health benefits may not be sufficient
8. They pay close attention to Government of Canada travel alerts before and during their trip
9. They plan to travel extensively throughout Canada for the 150th celebrations from coast to coast to coast and know their government health care plan won't cover ambulance or medical air evacuation
10. Friends or family are coming to visit them in Canada from abroad
